Official Race Photographer

Internationally renowned Marine Photographer, Tim Wilkes has been documenting sailboat racing for close to twenty years. His assignments have spanned the globe and his work has been published in more than twenty countries. Tim is a seasoned professional and his commitment is evident in every project.

He has established himself as the official photographer of many high profile sailing events, such as Key West Race Week, Block Island Race Week, Acura Miami Grand Prix, Charleston Race Week and World Championships for the Farr 40, Melges 24, J24 and Optimist Dinghy racing classes.

This is Tim's first time at Chester Race Week and he is looking forward to taking some great shots on beautiful Mahone Bay. The photos will be available for sale at the Chester Yacht Club after the races.
